

AT THE LORRAINE MOTEL

23 January 2014

Ms. Jacqueline Murray

Dear Ms. Murray,

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day 2014 at the National Civil Rights Museum was a soaring success! This is in no small part because of the awesome performances by all of the talented participants who used their gifts to bring life to the event and joy to the community. Your Living History performance as Harriet Tubman was no exception. Without your willingness to share your talent with the Memphis community, the event would have felt incomplete.

Dr. King once said, "All labor that uplifts humanity has dignity and importance and should be undertaken with painstaking excellence." Your labor—your willingness to apply your gifts to the uplift of humanity through education and entertainment—was undertaken with the sort of excellence about which Dr. King was speaking. For that, the nearly 8,000 visitors who were in attendance on King Day thank you. The National Civil Rights Museum staff thanks you for your presence. I thank you with a deep and personal sincerity and appreciation.

It is my hope that you will be willing, if called upon, to participate in other major events at the National Civil Rights Museum in the future. Please feel free to call on me in the future if I can help you in any way.

Yours In Peace, Love and Freedom,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Alaenor Faye London". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

Alaenor Faye London
The National Civil Rights Museum